

Discovermore

Laboratory Manager

Department: Quality Control
Hours per week: 37.5
Basis: Permanent

Job Purpose:

You will lead the organisation of our laboratory functions through effective management of a large team, ensuring all work undertaken is to appropriate regulated standards. You will manage programs & projects to deliver significant improvements in QC, efficiency, throughput and compliance.

Key Responsibilities:

- To lead positive, rational & compliant change in QC
- Through strong leadership, effectively manage and develop the team
- To drive positive, rational & compliant change in QC
- Organise and prioritise workloads and assignments of staff in conjunction with Production requirements including objective collation, management, tracking and delivery
- Ensure the effective operation of the laboratory to budget including management of consumable budgets
- Improve laboratory compliance, efficiency and reduce costs
- Manage prospective CAPEX equipment, introduce and risk assess for potential budgeting
- Support the delivery of compliance activities including NC/CAPA, change control and HS&E

Knowledge, Experience & Skills Required:

- Relevant Science degree & 4-6 years pharmaceutical experience
- 3 years plus experience of successfully managing scientific teams in the pharmaceutical industry & experience working with Quality Systems
- Strong people management skills
- Proven effective program & project management
- Collaboration & relationship builder
- Ability to balance listening with expressing own opinion
- Clear, structured, logical work approach
- Ability to work and perform in a team as well as under your own initiative
- Good concise verbal and written communication skills

To apply for this role, please send your CV to Careers@Allergytherapeutics.com

The closing date is 5th March 2021

Visionary

Commitment

Menschlichkeit

Allergy
Therapeutics PLC