

Production Technician

Department: Specifics Manufacturing

Hours per week: 37.5

Basis: Permanent

Job Purpose

The Production Technician works within a clean suite environment to ensure products are manufactured in accordance with GMP processes, ensuring right first time products whilst meeting customer delivery dates.

Key Responsibilities

- Meet standards conducive with fully validated gowning requirements
- Set up of patient named specific vaccines
- Quality manufacture of patient named specific vaccines in a sterile environment.
- Servicing activities
- Tropos activities
- Completion of appropriate documentation to GMP standards
- Work and react to customer demands

Knowledge, Experience & Skills Required

- Good written and oral standard of Maths and English
- Excellent attention to detail
- Previous experience of GMP
- Computer literate
- Dextrous – working with small quantities of solutions using syringes and vials

Advantageous

- Previous experience of working in a production environment
- Experience of working in a clean suite environment

If you are interested in this role a job description is available on request.

Please send all applications to:
careers@allergytherapeutics.com