

Discovermore

QC Chemistry Scientist Level II

Department: Quality Control - Chemistry

Hours per week: 37.5

Basis: Permanent

Job Purpose

To provide quality control testing and laboratory compliance

Key Responsibilities

- To perform routine analytical testing on intermediaries and finished products according to standard analytical methods, standard operating procedures and GQCLP
- Sampling and testing of raw and source materials
- Maintain an accurate record of work on paper and computer based systems according to ALCOA+ principles
- To enter data on the LIMS system
- Maintain stock levels within the laboratory
- To follow work schedules to ensure customer needs are met whilst maintaining GMP requirements

Knowledge, Experience & Skills Required

- Relevant degree in a science related subject and/or experience in industry or a placement
- Experience in HPLC and/or Raw Material (Pharmacopoeia) testing would be a real advantage
- Experience of performing analytical testing
- Excellent communication skills
- Able to work well as part of a team
- Ability to work in a demanding environment with a flexible approach
- Experience of working in a GMP environment would be beneficial

If you are interested in this role a job description is available on request.

Please send all applications to:
careers@allergytherapeutics.com

Allergy
Therapeutics