

QC Scientist I

Department: Microbiology
Hours per week: 37.5
Basis: 12-month Fixed Term Contract

Job Purpose

To provide environmental monitoring, QC testing and laboratory compliance

Key Responsibilities

- To perform routine analytical testing on raw and source materials following pharmacopeia
- To perform routine Environmental Monitoring of Classified areas to support production
- To prepare and test samples in support of in process monitoring for production
- To prepare reagents and solutions for use in analysis
- To perform routine analytical testing of finished products for the purposes of release in accordance with the standard analytical methods and the weekly test schedule
- Complete all laboratory notebooks, logs and records in accordance with good documentation practice
- To assist with laboratory equipment validation
- To enter data on LIMS system

Knowledge, Experience & Skills Required

- Relevant degree in Microbiology
- Demonstrable scientific knowledge and understanding
- Experience of performing assays and Environmental Monitoring either in a lab-based role or as part of a university placement
- Excellent communication skills
- Able to work well as part of a team

If you are interested in this role a job description is available on request.

Please send all applications to:
careers@allergytherapeutics.com