

Discovermore

Head of Quality Control

Department: QC
Hours per week: 37.5
Basis: Permanent

Job Purpose

The Head of Quality Control is responsible for on-time delivery for the QC elements of the Supply Chain and leading the strategic approach to Quality Control for the Worthing site.

Working as a key member of the Senior Quality Leadership Team, they will own and drive the quality improvement and transformation agenda

Key Responsibilities

- Development and delivery of a Strategy and plan for QC teams
- Maintain a thorough working knowledge of compliance requirements, industry trends, Health authority/regulatory developments. Supports integration of requirements into AT quality systems
- Ensure that QC laboratories and systems are compliant and fit for purpose
- Accountable for the performance of the Quality Control function
- Accountable for setting the quality standards, targets, measures and performance managing all QC teams through the use of lean sigma tools to drive year-on-year improvement in performance
- Ownership for performance against all compliance activities including NC/CAPA, change control and HS&E
- Communication on changes in standards of performance against targets and owner of actions to control and mitigate impacts
- Leader for quality improvement and lead collaborative working across the organisation to achieve continuous improvement
- Develop and implement a communication strategy to improve awareness and ownership of quality issues across the entire company
- Drive ownership for delivered quality, ensuring that the highest practical level of quality standards and methods are achieved and maintained
- Autonomous decision making for the function on a day-to-day basis
- Support reviews / compilation of critical reports, review and input into PQRs, MAA or BLA
- Ensure there are active plans to train, develop, mentor members of the QC function

Knowledge, Experience & Skills Required

- Substantial experience leading teams in an Operational Quality environment (of which a significant amount should include managing complex QC teams)
- Experience of fronting multiple Health Authority inspections and internal audits
- Demonstrates knowledge of Global Pharmaceutical Quality Control and Key Performance Indicators
- Strong people focused manager with leadership, coaching and influencing capability
- Able to lead multiple quality improvement activities within cross functional teams
- Able to advise and act on complex quality issues – e.g. business processes, root cause analysis, document control and traceability

If you are interested in this role, a job description is available on request.

Please send all applications to:
careers@allergytherapeutics.com

Allergy
Therapeutics